

Zayvo Calle Torero

Peru

Lead of Management Control in Human Resources at Interbank

„The MBA was a turning point in my career. The program's strong combination of academic rigor and practical insight gave me the tools to make strategic financial decisions with confidence. Studying in an international environment also strengthened my leadership skills and global perspective. Living in Germany gave me the opportunity to learn from its culture and truly shaped me as a person.“

